

Sinclair Broadcasting Co's use of free air waves to express biased views on John Kerry without equal time for more accurate portrayals of him is a clear breach of the public trust. Considering this, they should lose their license to continue such practices.